S.T.A.R. Training and Certification Seminar

Co-Sponsored by Spectrum Seminars and Rural Rental Housing Association of Indiana

Tuesday and Wednesday, March 17th and 18th

Holiday Inn North and Caribbean Cove Indoor Water Park
3850 DePauw Boulevard, Indianapolis, IN 46268

The Spectrum Training Award Recipient (S.T.A.R.) may be earned by passing a certification exam after attending the Rural Development 515 course. The seminar covers handbook income, eligibility and occupancy issues, the 3560-8 Tenant Certification and 3560 Handbook Regulations.

Since October 1986 Spectrum has been the leading National Training Firm for Rural Development 515 Management. Steve Rosenblatt has conducted seminars with participants from all 50 states attending and has received superlative reviews throughout the nation for this seminar dealing with Rural Development Handbook Regulations.

Why You Should Attend:

- Spectrum is recognized as the leader in Rural Development 515 Training
- Nationally recognized certification program for owners and managers
- Course material includes an important overview of 3560 Regulation & Handbook
- The course material has been reviewed by the National Office of USDA RD and found to be in compliance with the 3560.

*Course approved by: National Office of Rural Development or Rural Housing Service (Formerly FmHA) Certification exam occurs in the afternoon of the second day of the course. On passing, the attendee receives S.T.A.R. Certification. Please bring a calculator.
